

CHIEF OF STAFF REGULATION)
NO. 10-27 )

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF STAFF
Washington, D.C., 11 September 1986

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence

---

PURPOSE

This regulation supplements AR 10-5 by prescribing the internal organization and functions of the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence (OACSI). In addition, it constitutes section I of the OACSI table of distribution and allowances (TDA).

ORGANIZATION

The official organizational chart is in the appendix.

FUNCTIONS

Functions are described below and identified by type, level, and functional matter addressed. "Type," "level," and "function" are defined in CSR 10-5. The numbers in parentheses after the titles of individuals and organizational elements correspond to those on the organizational chart and to paragraphs of the OACSI TDA.

1. Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence (ACSI) (01). Is responsible for the functions performed by the elements of this Army Staff agency.

Personal functions:

Is responsible to the Chief of Staff for overall coordination of the intelligence, counterintelligence, foreign liaison, and threat management activities of the U.S. Army. Is the Army principal member on the National Foreign Intelligence Board and the Army representative on the Military Intelligence Board. Is the vice chairperson of the Army Electronic Warfare Intelligence Committee. Is a member of the General Staff Council, Army Staff Council, Army Policy Council, and Select Committee. Is the Signals Intelligence (SIGINT) focal point for the Army. Is the subprogram director for Program 3—Intelligence and Counterintelligence and Investigative Activities of the Five Year Defense Program, and functional program director of the Consolidated Cryptologic Program and General Defense Intelligence Program. Is the Army Staff manager and coordinator of technology transfer matters.

2. Deputy Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence (DACSI) (01). Is the principal adviser and alternate to the ACSI.

*This regulation supersedes CSR 10-27, 22 July 1982.
